

Privacy Policy

We have created this privacy policy to demonstrate our firm commitment to your privacy. We do not collect personally identifying information about you when you visit our site, unless you choose to provide such information to us. Providing such information is strictly voluntary. This policy is your guide to how we will handle information we learn about you from your visit to our Web site.

Use of Links

Throughout our Web pages, we provide links to other servers which may contain information of interest to our readers. We take no responsibility for, and exercise no control over, the organizations, views, or accuracy of the information contained on other servers.

To request a link be added to our site, please email info@elderserveinc.org with the subject line "Link request."

Use of Text and Images

If you would like to publish information found on our site, please email info@elderserveinc.org. When applicable, copyright statements are noted on pages with licensed material.

Accessibility

Our site is designed to comply with federal accessibility guidelines. We welcome your feedback. Please send comments to info@elderserveinc.org.

Reading or Downloading

We collect only the domain from which you access our site, the date/time, and the website address that referred you. This data helps us improve user experience.

Online Profile Updates and Donations

Personal information submitted via forms is used only to provide requested information. You may opt out of future communications.

Sending Us an Email

If you email us or fill out a web form, we may use that information to respond to you. We may share your message with other staff if appropriate.

Opt-Out or Change Contact Information

You may opt out of communications or update contact information by emailing info@elderserveinc.org.

Information Collection, Use and Sharing

We do not sell or rent your information. We use your data only to fulfill requests and respond to you.

Security

Your information is protected both online and offline. Sensitive data is encrypted. Only necessary personnel have access to personally identifiable information.
